

1978 to 1983	Adult Mental Health Services, Traverse City, MI Staff Psychologist
1976 to 1978	Private Practice, Dallas, TX In practice with William H. Tedford, Jr., Ph.D.
1965 to 1978	Dallas Police Department, Dallas, TX Staff Psychologist

TEACHING EXPERIENCE (1973 to Present)

Dr. Hill has experience as an instructor at the university, police academy and community college levels. He developed curricula for psychology and criminal justice courses, presenting in lecture format. He also promoted group discussion in the investigation, application and comprehension of multiple topics.

Sample subjects include:

Psychology

- General
- Abnormal
- Handling Emotionally Disturbed Persons
- Marriage and Family Relations

Criminal Justice

- Police Officer as Crisis Intervener
- Hostage Negotiation
- Victims and Crime
- Stress Management for Criminal Justice Persons
- Police and Community Relations
- Criminology

SPECIALIZED ABILITIES AND SKILLS

Trial Simulations, Focus Groups, Trial Strategy, Witness Preparation, Jury Selection, Interpersonal Communications

ASSOCIATIONS

American Psychological Association
Michigan Psychological Association
American College of Forensic Psychology
American College of Forensic Examiners
American Society of Trial Consultants
American Society of Law Enforcement Trainers (ASLET)
Association of Former Intelligence Officers

AWARDS

Diplomate: American Board of Forensic Examiners
Ribbons, medals, and decorations of the United States Navy.

PRESENTATIONS (1976 to Present)

Psychological Presentations

- Development and Validation of Psychological Tests
- The Nature of Terrorism
- Profiling Serial Killers
- Hostage Negotiation

- Violence Control Training for Mental Health Workers
- Elements of Counselor/Client Relationship
- The Role and Importance of Empathy, Genuineness and Warmth in the Therapeutic Relationship
- Dealing with the Violent Client
- Counseling Techniques for Supervisors
- Domestic Violence

PUBLICATIONS

- Published Book(s): Stress in Police Personnel. Territo, L and H.J. Vetter, Allen and Bacon, Spring 1980
Contributor to chapters, “Stress Management for Police Personnel” and “Inservice for Recognition of Stress for Police Supervisors”
- Michigan Municipal Workers’ Compensation Fund Law Enforcement Risk Reduction Manual. August 1994
Co-Author, Chapter 9: Critical Incident Management
- Topical Resource Publications: “Defining Psychological Trauma” July, 1994
“Suggestions for Selecting a Psychological Services Resource Professional” August, 1994
- Professional Articles: The Jury Expert: “How Jurors with Personality Disorders Can Affect Deliberations” February, 2005
- Dissertation: Stress in Policing, Copyright by author.